The Guidelines' booklets, one for each ministry area, are tools that enable you to help get new lay leaders off to a good start. Each booklet includes the basic "job description" for the leader as well as practical "how-to" information important to implementing ministry effectively. Brief and to the point for the busy, but spirit-led leader, these Guidelines take some of the unknown out of leading these ministry areas. One booklet for each title makes up this set of 26 Guidelines, perfect for making them available to all church members. The twenty-six Guidelines, one for each ministry area, cover church leadership areas including Church Council and Small Membership Church; the administrative areas of Finance and Trustees; and ministry areas focused on nurture, outreach, and witness including Worship, Evangelism, Stewardship, and Christian Education, age-level ministries, Communications, and more. The download file of a product is copyrighted just as a print resource is copyrighted. In the case of the Guidelines Set of 26, the purchaser can extract one copy of each booklet for an individual to use. (For example, one copy can be extracted for the chair of the stewardship committee; one for the person responsible for adult ministries; one for the lay leader). Additional copies are purchased separately as needed. Download files for each individual booklet are sold separately, just as print copies of the booklets are sold separately. A Millennial in Church is a training guide that is directed to Christian church leaders who are looking to grow their young adult ministry or their overall membership by reaching out to young adults. What is most interesting about this training guide is that it was written by someone who is part of the Millennial age group. This insider's information is undeniably intuitive yet manages to exercise journalistic objectivity. All of these qualities produce an incomparable asset and vantage point for church leaders. Constructing a new life in Christ is like building a new house; a solid foundation is absolutely essential. Rock Solid: Building a New Life on the Foundation of Christ is a daily Bible devotional guide to help new Christians establish a solid spiritual foundation for their lives. Each day for fifty days (seven weeks), readers are directed toward relevant Bible readings and given devotional thoughts and questions to consider. Rock Solid exposes the new believer to the foundational teachings of Christianity and also begins to develop a secure footing of daily time with God through Scripture reading and prayer. Suitable for use alone or in a group, Rock Solid includes a leaders guide so mentors can support new Christians as they grow. The notion that Jesus can literally be inside of us should startle us with the extent of the intimacy we can have with Jesus, and astonish us with the depth of connection he offers. And it's all possible because of the Holy Spirit. In Jesus In Me, revered evangelist and Bible teacher Anne Graham Lotz guides us to a deeper relationship with the Holy Spirit, who is Jesus without skin. In this practical study that is a true Bible study, Anne starts with a workshop on how to get to know the Holy Spirit by listening to him when we're studying the Bible. Then, we apply the skills of asking and listening as we work through five Bible studies per week on selected Scriptures about the Holy Spirit. Through eight sessions, we will discover why the Holy Spirit is not an optional extra in the Christian life. Instead: We can have a relationship with this living, thinking, feeling Person, who is our comforter, counselor, friend. We can enjoy his constant Presence, inside us, filling us. We can receive and experience his Power. We can live a life of Purpose, directed by his guidance. We can understand the Precepts in the Bible by hearing directly from the One who breathed it. We will be convicted of our sin by his Purity. Discover how you can better love and rely on the Holy Spirit—and embrace how much He loves you. Sessions include: Bible Study Workshop Loving the Person of the Holy Spirit Enjoying the Presence of the Holy Spirit Relying on the Power of the Holy Spirit Embracing the purpose of the Holy Spirit Living by the Precepts of the Holy Spirit Reflecting on the Purity of the Holy Spirit Trusting the Priority of the Holy Spirit Designed for use with the Jesus in Me Video Study available on DVD or streaming video, sold separately.

When it comes to proclaiming the Gospel message, half-truths, vague notions, and generalizations can be dangerous.

In today's Church, many people are spreading a gospel that is full of half-truths, unaware that they are believing lies about Who God is and what our roles as Christians are. Our responsibility as Christians is to dive into God's Word and find His truths for ourselves. In this study guide, you will be directed to explore the Scriptures for yourself to find the true Gospel.

Designed as a companion piece to No Half-Truths Allowed: Understanding the Complete Gospel Message by Christine Paxon and Rose Spiller, No Half-Truths Allowed Study Guide is an interactive study guide with questions and Scriptures to help readers delve even deeper into understanding the complete Gospel message.

Though this study guide can stand alone without the book, it is designed to supplement the book to give a richer and deeper understanding of the Gospel message and is easily adaptable for individual or small group study. Learning is enriched and more fun when you do it together!

This book is about hearing the Word of God preached boldly, plainly and faithfully. It is particularly aimed at the Christian sitting in the pew who is required by God to hear the Word of God preached with spiritual profit to their soul. However, many pastors today would also do well to hear the contents of these chapters since their performance allows, or not, the ability for the Christian to accomplish the intended ends when they hear the Word preached. If they are negligent in preaching, the hearer can never do his commanded duty. One might think that a book about “preaching” concerns hermeneutics or exegesis, or more especially, homiletics, and not particularly directed towards the Christian. This work, however, is neither about hermeneutics, or homiletics, per se. It is primarily directed at the Christian hearer, though much will be said about the minister and his pulpit ability. Many good books have dealt with being called to the ministry, or being faithful in study for preaching, or for aid in sermon preparation. Though this work may touch on all these things, and much more, it is really directed at what Christians ought to expect when the minister stands up to preach in the pulpit. If the minister is not fulfilling his office as it should be intended, what is the final result? What should the congregation see, hear and expect in this regard, biblically speaking? Reader, what do you expect? If you're tired of muddling along on your own, if you genuinely desire to be guided daily by the Lord and live in the peace that He gives, then you must decide to spend time alone with God each morning. Edwina's devotionals are designed for busy people on the run. Not only can they be read in one minute, but they also help up jump start the day and place your focus on the One who controls time. "An inspiring, Scripturally sound, love-, faith-, and prayer-directed guide to a deeper, more rewarding life with Christ as the Eternal Tour Guide." Zig Ziglar, Best Selling Author and Motivational Speaker. This powerful stand-alone study guide, by Pastor Ray Petty, issues a call to become a relevant follower of Christ as an agent of change in your world. Through these 16 Bible lessons, you will gain a foundation for your service and a practical road-map into becoming more like the Lord Jesus Christ. Use this study guide in your individual or group study to find answers about: REVEALING God's explosive power in YOUR life, FINDING YOUR place in the Christian community, Wielding God's Word for YOUR victorious living, FUNCTIONING in YOUR supernatural wholeness, and MORE. Drawing from his personal, pastoral, and academic interests, Chris Hulshof offers biblical wisdom and comfort to those seeking to understand the topic of disability in the church. He explores how Jesus's involvement with the disabled can be instrumental in laying a foundation for disability-inclusive church leadership and practice. Ultimately, this book provides a blueprint for how pastors and congregations can become disability friendly in the church and in the broader community. Indifference toward deacon development places the church in a precarious state. By and large, congregations stand to be weakened by deacons who have not discovered the exciting possibilities of the office. When pastor and congregation disregard the need to have trained deacons, the office is allowed to recede into one of mere honor rather than service established in Christ. On the other hand, trained deacons or those in training discover exciting opportunities with which the office of deacons is filled. They come to perceive the office as one of service rather than honor. The church is strengthened exceedingly by their effective and efficient leadership under the sight of the pastor. Unquestionable, God is looking for a special breed of deacons-a New Testament breed who are Spirit-filled and qualified. To say that deacons are qualified is to say also that they are trained for the work of deacons. OUR MISSION IN THESE SIX BOOKS

www.topflix.info

1. Growing Decline in World Peace We started our long journey in these six Books with an expression of concern over the growing decline in world peace. Our Mission throughout our Six Books had therefore focused on our views on how the state of World Peace can be advanced. 2. Enhancing unity between Christianity and Secularity. We expressed at the beginning of our first Book that one major source of the growing decline in world peace is the on-going wars and crises between the Religious and Secular worlds of today. This source of global crises had been acknowledged in a recent conference of global Religious Leaders held in Assisi at the invitation of Pope Benedict XVI. The Conference participants resolved unanimously to address this source of crises in world peace. Global Secular Leaders had also expressed much concern on the growing decline in world peace. They did so again at the last meeting of the United Nations General Assembly in New York. 3. Our Mission to contribute to Pope Benedict XVI's New Evangelization In our view, the recent launching of the New Evangelization by Pope Benedict XVI reflected in part the resolution of Religious Leaders in the Assisi Conference to find ways of addressing the growing decline in world peace due partly to Religious conflicts with Secularity across the world. The Pope called on all Lay members of the Catholic Church and Christians in general to contribute to the success of the Popes New Evangelization-PCNE. As we expressed throughout our six books, our mission in these Books is to respond to the call by Pope Benedict XVI. 4. Military and Secular Perspectives on the Religious and Secular Peace We stated clearly from the start, that our contribution would reflect on the military and secular aspects of the growing conflicts between Christianity and Secularity, using the global experience in both sectors by our Author throughout his career. We had to take these perspectives because we must identify the source, leadership and strategies in the wars and conflicts between the Religious and Secular worlds . Unless we know the leaders in the conflicts and their missions we cannot achieve any progress in resolving these wars and crises and enhance the level of world peace. 5. My Background A few words of introduction on my background may enable the Reader understand my perspectives in these Books. I started the project of writing the Books because I am convinced that I can contribute to the PCNE by bringing my African background in Nigeria, education at the London School of Economics and exposure to global secular governance through my position as a former Economic Adviser with The U.K. Government and a Senior Economist at The World Bank. 6. Is anything wro The Walking with God series was developed as the curriculum for small groups at Willow Creek Community Church in South Barrington, Illinois. Since its release in 1992, it has been used by churches and small groups to help raise up devoted disciples of Christ. Group members who work through the program will lay a solid foundation for a lifelong walk with God. While small groups may be formed for a variety of purposes, the goal of this curriculum is for groups to produce disciples—fully devoted followers of Christ—by studying God’s Word in community. To this end, the goal of the study is to produce disciples who walk with God, have a personal relationship with Jesus, and live in step with the Holy Spirit. It is also to produce believers who live the Word in all areas of life and contribute to the work that God is doing in the local church. Ultimately, the goal is to develop believers who impact the world and are prepared and eager to spread the good news of Christ to others. This material will help develop these attributes in group members. Each lesson includes group Bible study and discussion questions in addition to devotions, reflections, and personal study for use by individuals between the group sessions. The church in the last days will not receive understanding of the consequences of worshipping the anti-Christ (the beast) or his image and of taking the mark of the beast. Many shall do so without hesitation thinking that they are good Christians conforming to the world for the sake of survival instead of trusting in Christ. The consequences of this ignorance will be disastrous in the last days. Jesus will use the seal, trumpet and vial judgments to cleanse and purify the compromising church and shall present the church to his father holy and blameless in the end. Meaning. Purpose. Calling. Vision. Whatever you name it, we are all searching for something that matters. Something that counts. We want to know that we're concentrating on the right things and that we're not missing the point. What Really Counts for Students tackles twenty-two areas of significance to students-including God, Love, Wisdom, Purpose, Health-and explores what matters most in each of them, answering questions like What are the basic truths? and What is most important? With introductions, meditations, and directed journaling sections on each topic, students will embark on an interactive journey to discover not only what really counts, but also what doesn't, further drawing focus to their purposes within the context of God's call for them. This book has step by step instructions on how to be a unique Christian clown.? This book is easy for children to understand, taken from a spiritual stand point. But can be used for anyone who wishes to use their God-given creativity for parties, special events, school projects, carnivals, hospital visits, church functions, children's group homes, rescue missions and just plain fun! LET'S REVITALIZE CHRISTIANITY is a book designed to give people what I have heard many folks ask for: How can Christianity give me a better way of life? It is designed to give a different slant to Christianity than one would get in a sectarian church, and it is based entirely on the New Testament of the New International Version of the Holy Bible. After a brief introduction many problems in our society are mentioned to which the existing churches do not seem to give solution or closure. Since many folks have given up attending church, we give good reasons why attending church is a good thing for us. What is fellowship, and how can we painlessly learn to love someone we don't really care very much about? Why is Jesus known as the Prince of

Peace? And can all of us be Princes and Princesses of Peace? We share a small study of prayer, and how we can help prayer work. There are two extremely important New Testament prayers. We show how the Lord's Prayer can be a guide to effective living, and we show how the Gethsemane Prayer is the birth of Christianity, and how it instills in all of us what Jesus wants for our interactive relationship with Him and with God. What is freedom? And what's the formula for achieving freedom? A short epilogue sums up the entire revitalization concept. And finally, we give a scriptural account of the life of Christ simply as an item of interest. For example, we cite Christ's lineage as reported in Luke 3:23-38. All Christians should cherish this book. How to Study the Bible discusses the necessity of motivation and proper attitude as prerequisites for the discovery of divine truth. Then it delves into a discussion of the nature of biblical authority, using Jesus himself as the model, also looking at the role of biblical silence and expediency. It includes a chapter regarding logic and its role in Bible study, as well as a chapter introducing various tools that are helpful for Bible students. The section on context includes a focus on general, literary, historical, and immediate context, culminating in a chapter showing how to determine Biblical principles and distinguish when something is cultural and when it is not. Rather than only providing theory, How to Study the Bible also walks the student through sample studies, highlighting the practical applications of the theory. An additional section introduces the student to both the benefits and difficulties involved in language studies. Finally, the conclusion demonstrates how it is indeed possible for the individual student to understand the Bible and that correct understanding of the Bible coupled with a godly attitude will produce Christian unity. Its style is directed toward the average Christian but retains challenges for the advanced student and minister as well. This work is not only about the Bible; it is thoroughly biblical, demonstrating how proper Bible study sometimes makes it necessary for us to abandon previously held convictions as we learn more about God's truth. This ... faith formation program introduces young Catholic adolescents to Jesus Christ in a new way and inspires them to follow him. Fostering the faith of young adolescents involves helping them to make connections between the Catholic faith and everyday life. In this Tyndale commentary on the books of Colossians and Philemon, Alan Thompson shows how these books unpack and apply the beauty of the gospel of God's grace, pointing to the hope we have in Christ's supremacy and the difference that the gospel makes in the delicate context of Onesimus's departure from Philemon. How to endure to the End deals with the necessary ingredients to help Christians endure through the storms of life. If you have ever thought if God would just tell me what I need to do I would do it, then this book is for you. God can't just tell people what to do like He did in the Old Testament because our beliefs, traditional teachings and our worldly brain actually keep us from hearing the truth. We no longer even recognize the works of the Holy Spirit or know how to seek interpretation to our dreams therefore hindering the communication between God and ourselves. This book is geared toward Christians who are seeking to grow in their faith. It is not directed to any particular denomination. Thought Power seeks to teach children the relationship between thought control and victorious Christian living. Even children experience a kind of "spiritual warfare"—that tug of choosing between right and wrong. Ephesians 4:23 (NIV) says, "And be made new in the attitude of your mind." Prepare your child to be a winner with godly, positive thoughts. Thought Power's main themes include the power of thoughts, the assurance that God has a purpose for our lives, and the reassurance that when we allow right thoughts to direct our lives, we will emerge as winners. Too many children today experience depression, feelings of worthlessness, and suicidal thoughts. Thought Power lets them know Jesus loves them, has a plan for their lives, and motivates them to use their thought power to its highest potential. DO YOU KNOW HIM? JESUS OF NAZARETH Jesus asks a question And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am? And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elijah; and others, One of the prophets. And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ (Mark 8:27-29). Jesus asked a question of His disciples that is directed to all of us today. Jesus said, whom say ye that I am? This is the question that must be answered by us all. Our knowledge of Him is not dependent upon what others are saying about Jesus, but is based upon our own personal relationship with Him. Today, God still desires an answer from us to the question, Do You Know Him? Jesus of Nazareth. Do You Know Him? Jesus of Nazareth is highly recommended to be used as a supplementary teaching tool in Church Bible studies, Ministry Outreach, Home Bible study groups and for individuals seeking a relationship with God. Study Guide for Our Highest Calling Make disciples of all nations as you are going, baptizing, and teaching. -Matthew 28:19-20 The Great Commission is a way of life. It is something to be carried out as one is going about. It is not a one-time evangelistic event. It is a call to make disciples as we live out our lives. In our modern-day, Christians have fallen prey to the trends of the world, including idolizing busyness and individualism, which are counter to the love that God called us to share and the community we are to be. The center of focus of the Early Church was love toward God and others, which fulfilled the Greatest Commandment. Our Highest Calling is about how to live out that life, and it is through discipleship that we can make disciples in our lives. Discipleship is a practice of love with other close-knit Christian brothers and sisters over time. It is about being available for one another and pursuing God-given callings together for the kingdom of God. As Christians grow in discipleship and form deep relationships, they will, in turn, make disciples who genuinely love God. They can then walk together and make even more disciples, just as Jesus and His disciples did throughout their lives. An exploration of the complexities/perplexities raised by asking what is the Eucharist?> We are faced with unending series of choice in our lives. How do I know if I am taking the right step or making the right decision? Man at his best mental state is incapable of making reliable and durable decisions. He may lay all his cards on the table or weigh his decisions on the scales of intellectualism, events and facts. His colleagues may even approve his ideas which "Seemeth right" by their assessment, but "The end thereof is the way of death." No human effort can match God's direction, you need to be divinely directed because misdirection can lead to many years of set back, and can even wipe out a man's destiny. Jesus said, "My sheep knows my voice and the voice of a stranger will they not follow." So, it is expected of you to discern God's voice among other voices and this is what this book entails. You will learn: 1: The reality of divine direction, 2: Why you must be led?, 3: How God lead you via his word, 4: How God lead through the voice of the spirit, 5: How you can be led through the witness of the spirit, 6: Guidance through vision and dream, 7: Guidance through prophecy, with practical examples in al., 8: Ten prerequisite of hearing the voice of God, 9: How you can train the human spirit to hear God's voice, 10: Benefits you will derive from divine direction, 11: How you can differentiate the voice of God in the midst of other voices, 12: A bonus chapter of ten prayer empowerment that will cause the full manifestation of the Holy Spirit in you. I welcome you on board. No more wrong step!
